Quotes from resident feedback on Hey Neighbour initiatives

“Congratulations to the town council for supporting the Hey Neighbour team. What great new initiatives - pop up fire pits, safe streets, play streets, etc. I am so proud to live in Halton Hills!”

-Town resident

“These kinds of initiatives support what the residents in Halton Hills appreciate and are part of a larger system of programs needed to foster a healthy community. We hope they continue.”

-Town resident

“Initiatives like this are invaluable for us.”

-Town resident

“One of the things we love about Halton Hills is the small-town vibe we get and this supports that 100%.”

-Town resident

“Families get to know each other through their children, and we are included in this... we feel this fills a void in our case.”

-Town resident

“We appreciated all of your staff who are extremely welcoming... made us feel really at ease when approaching the community.”

-Town resident

“It’s important to get to know neighbours for so many reasons. Life is getting more and more complicated, and technology is fabulous but can also be a curse. It’s great to get out into the fresh air, away from the screens, get to know new people and be acknowledged when walking around or even just when out and about.”

-Town resident

“With these difficult economic times, crime will be on the rise and it’s nice to be able to rely on neighbours to keep an eye out for you.”

-Town resident

“How beautiful bringing community together – what a beautiful 2025 energy start.”
