

Submit your questions!

56 questions
3 upvotes

Warm-Up: Favourite ice cream flavour?

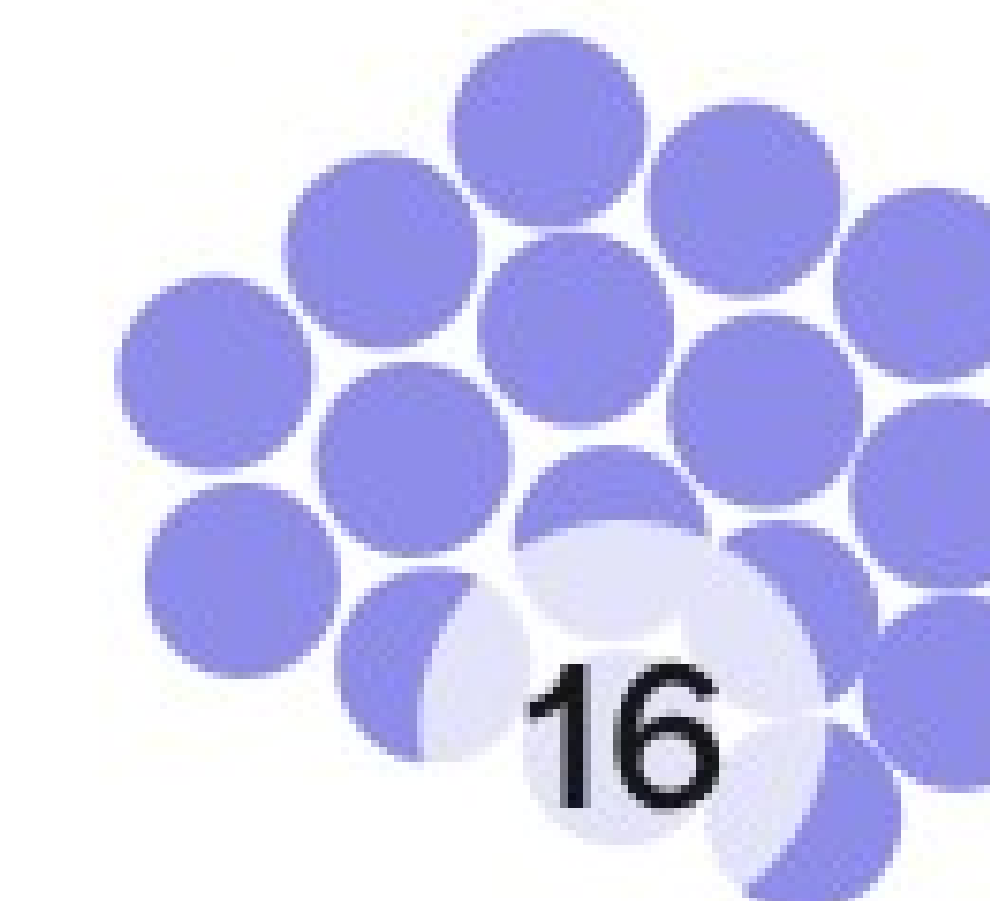

Vanilla

Chocolate

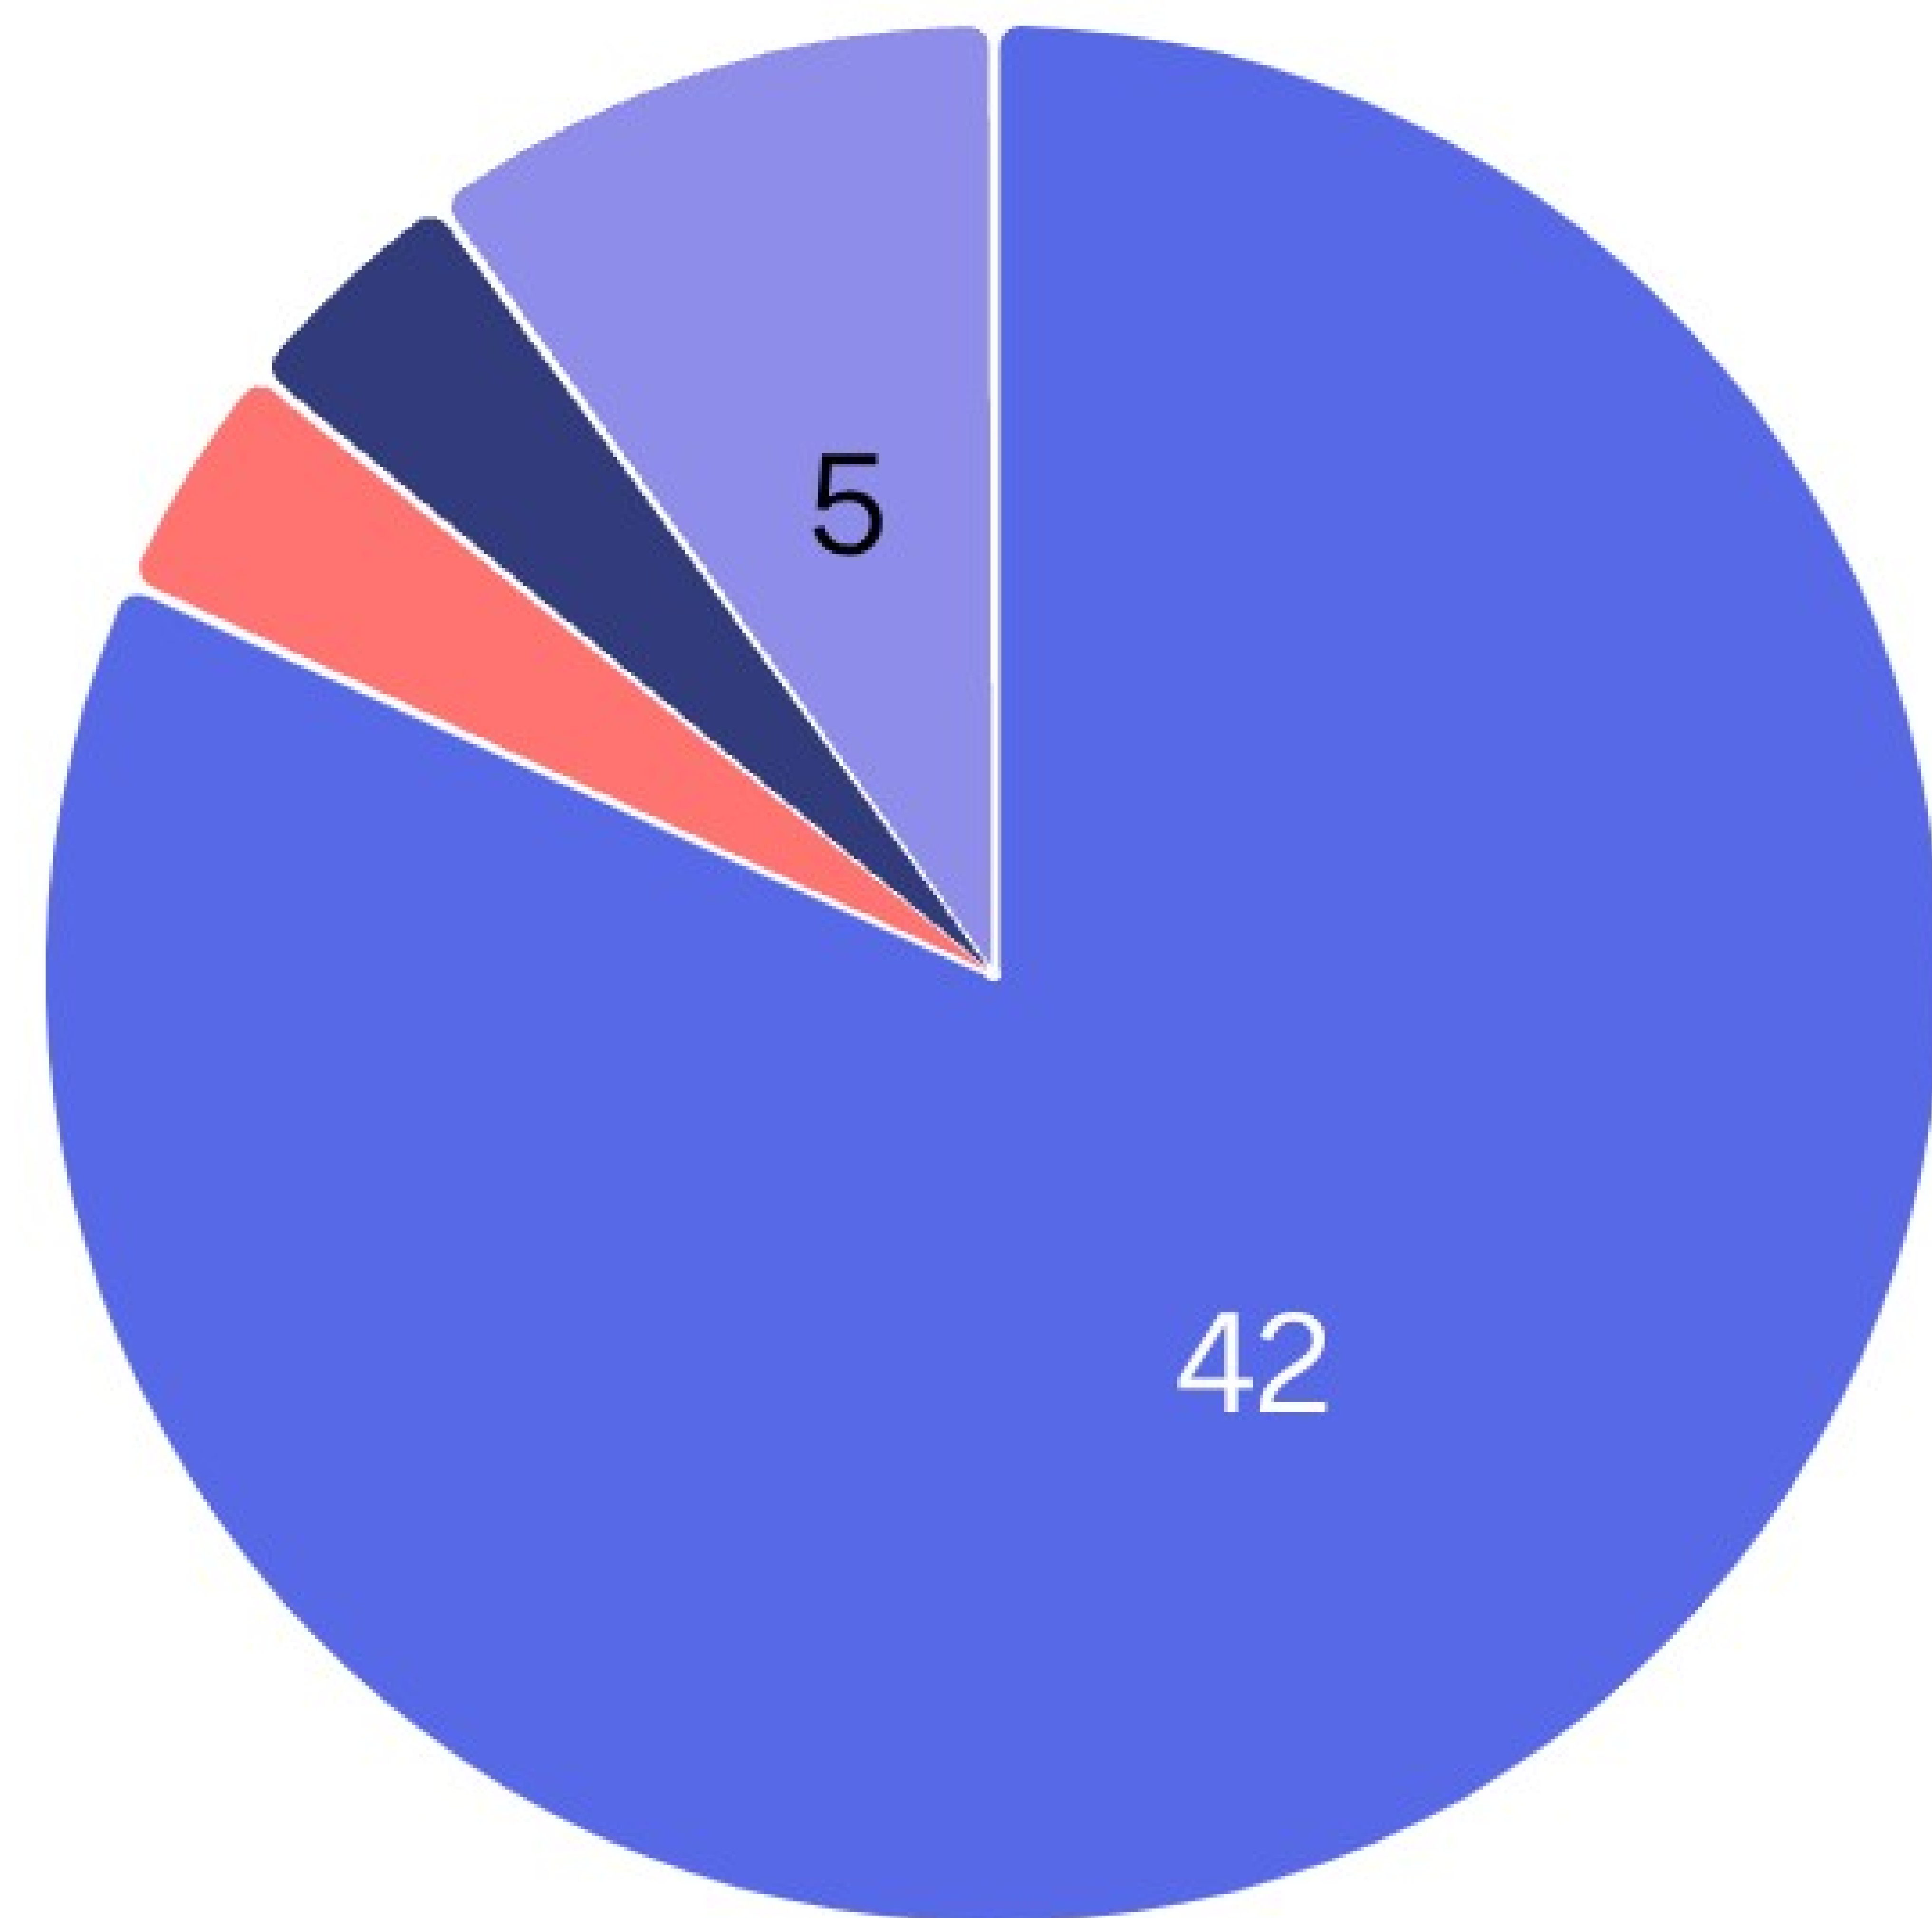

Strawberry

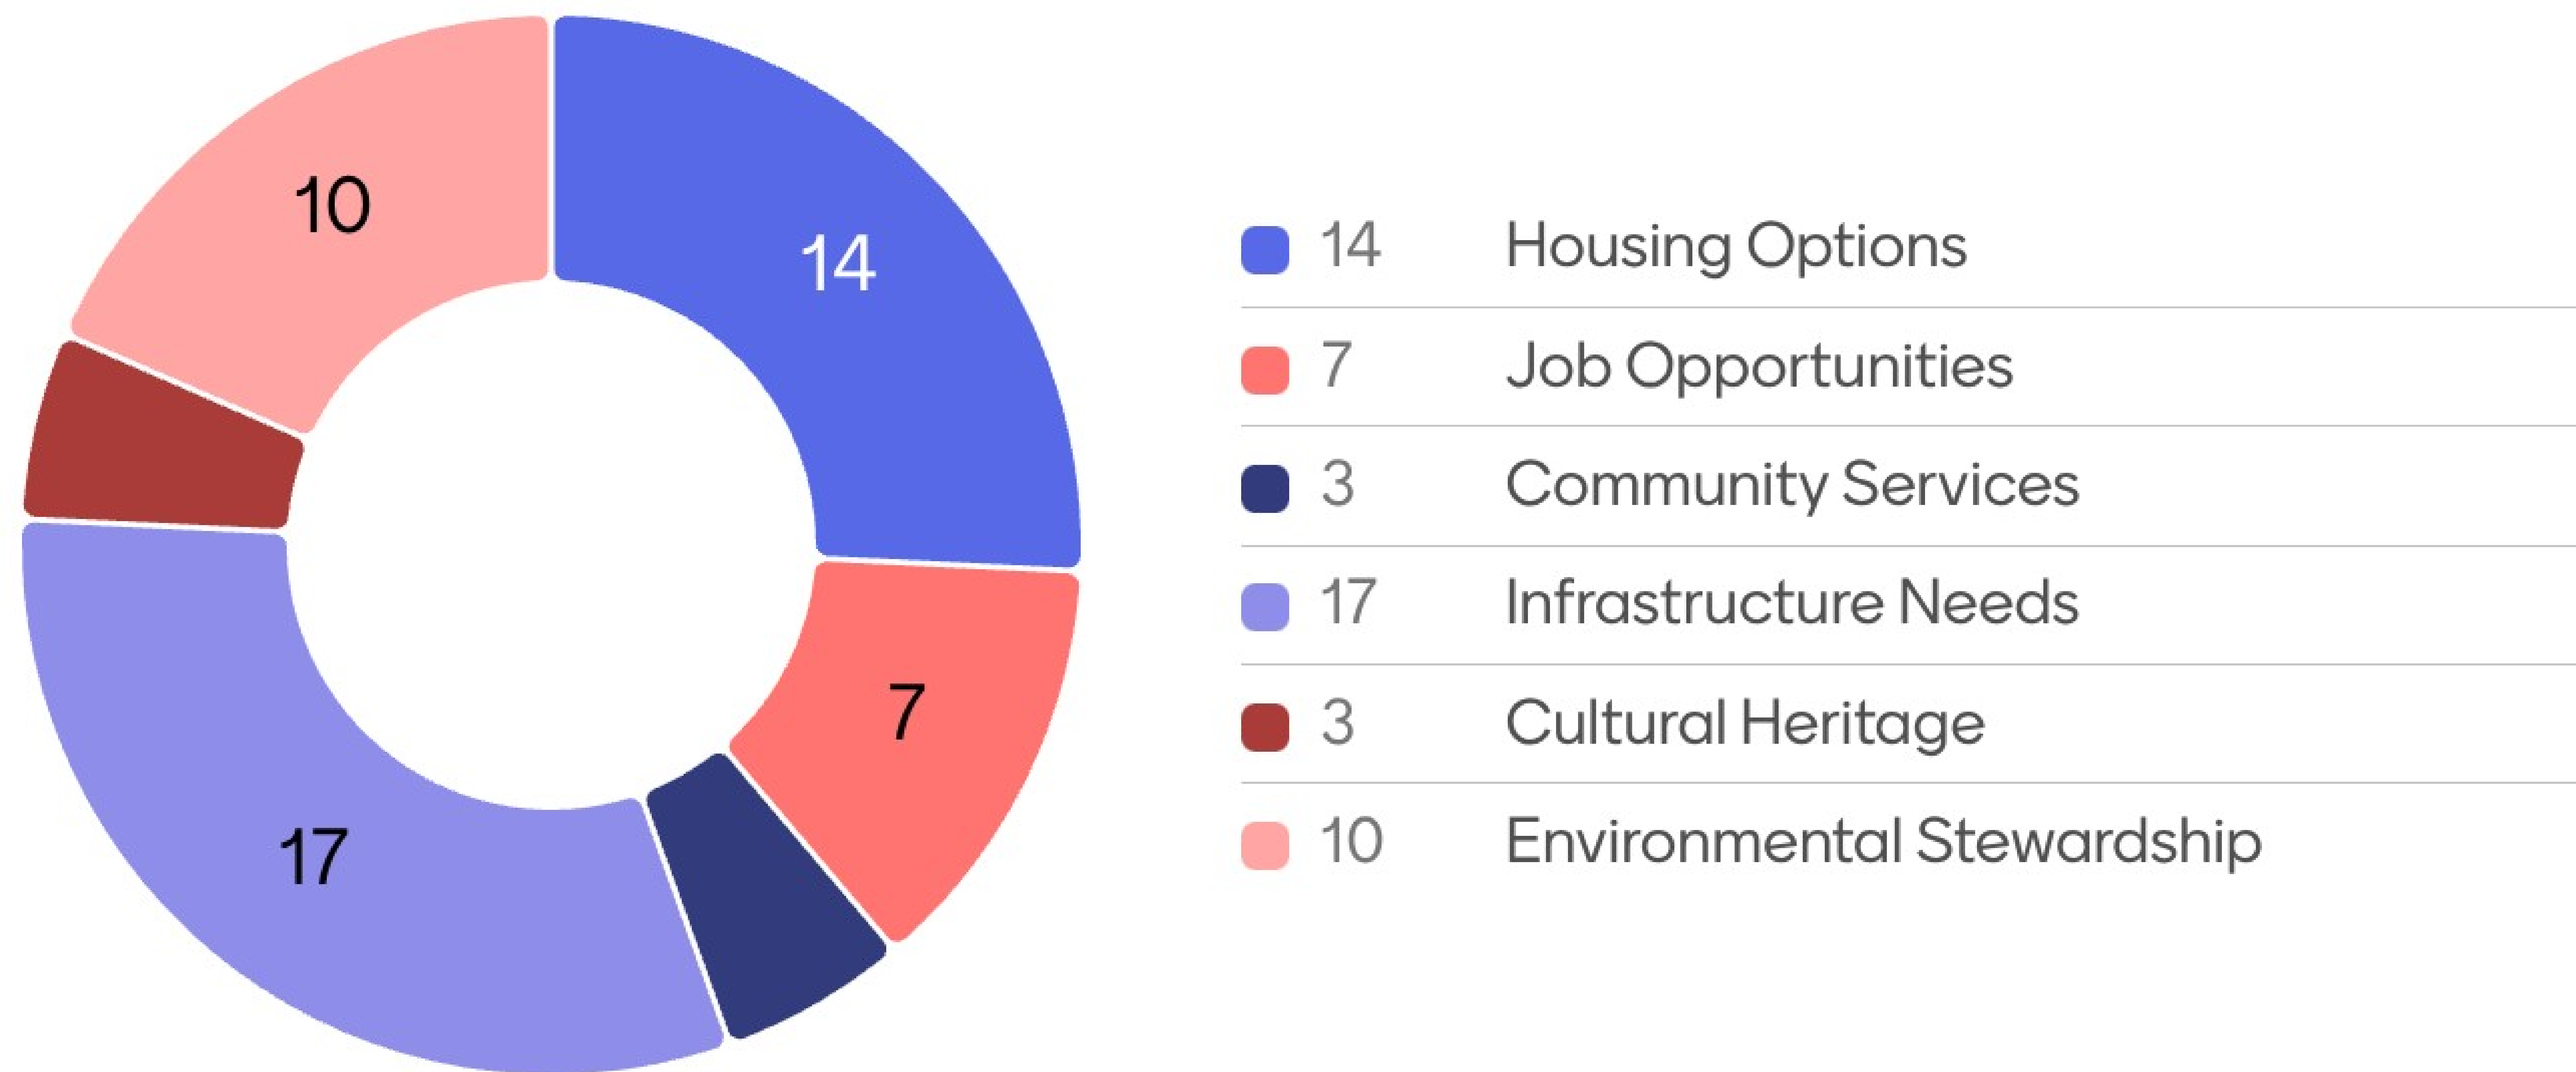

Other

1. Which option describes you best?

- 42 Resident – I live here
- 2 Landowner (non-resident) – I own land in Halton Hills but don't live here
- 2 Business owner – I own/operate a business in Halton Hills
- 5 Consultant – I'm here on behalf of someone else
- 0 Other

2. What planning topic are you most interested in?

3. What does "good development" mean to you?

Mixed use

Good development is thoughtful, responsible, and designed for long-term positive impact

Strategic and opportunistic

Sustainable growth where newcomers feel like there are good opportunities to live and work.

Adequate parks and natural areas.

Infrastructure before growth

Mixed Density and affordability

Expanding current infrastructure prior to introducing new elements to allow everything to flow

3. What does "good development" mean to you?

Balance of services infrastructure housing
and commercial space

Efficiently planned and developable in. Timely way - consistent with Town planning needs and priorities but with a mind towards keeping costs down by all.

Development within existing urban boundaries

Balanced types of housing for all demographic needs.

For the good of the people and not for developers

Equality and growth

Development taking into consideration that small town feel that residents want to keep.

Environmentally friendly,
affordable,

3. What does "good development" mean to you?

Providing

Thoughtful, comprehensive approach. Looking at all aspects before putting shovels in the ground

Serving all residents, not just business

Variety of housing, including for low income. Environmentally responsible. Public transit. Walkable neighbourhoods

Affordable homes
Maintaining green spaces

Proper infrastructure in place first Environment

Providing affordable housing options.

Protects cultural heritage areas

3. What does "good development" mean to you?

Adequate housing for all residents.

Listening to the needs of residents, consideration to current owners

Preserves the Secondary Plans that have been carefully crafted through consensus. Maintains the character of existing communities

Employment opportunities for farmers, the town closes the doors on any type southern georgetown farms need.

Development of a scale that mirrors small town living at its best

Balanced with amenities, nature,, community services and infrastructure. Affordable.

Doing the best to meet all the needs of the residents.

3. What does "good development" mean to you?

Strategic and opportunistic

Infrastructure before growth

Infrastructure before growth

Built to last... Supports the growth of any community within which it's found Human in scale

Good developments creates place people love to live and prioritizes ecosystem resiliency.

The development support the transit network, closer to Highways Sustainable development

Appropriate housing types and growth rates matching job creation and infrastructure.

Improved housing options, Multifamily units in all new neighborhoods. Positive business environment which does not exist in Halton Hills currently.

3. What does "good development" mean to you?

Providing community hubs , centres and efficient public transport

Fixing infrastructure before expanding the city

Recreation parks with mixed use

Keeping the needs of the residents paramount. Increase sporting facilities within Halton Hills to meet the current increased needs.

Creation of a balance between old and new. With any development historically, there has been one or more aspects out of sink. ie. public transportation to connect us with Toronto has been poor.

4. In one word, how do you want your neighbourhood to feel in 25 years?

Submit your questions!

56 questions
3 upvotes

