1. O CANADA

2. LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We would like to begin by acknowledging that the land on which we gather is part of the Treaty lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit.

3. DISCLOSURES OF PECUNIARY/CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Councillor B. Inglis declared a pecuniary/conflict of interest with respect to Item No. 5.2, Report No. PD-2026-020 as he owns property inside the boundary of the study, and there is a local road proposed abutting the building he owns property in. He did not participate in the discussion or voting on this matter.

4. OTHER BUSINESS (ANNOUNCEMENTS, EMERGENCY MATTERS)

1. National Volunteer Week

Mayor A. Lawlor announced that National Volunteer Week will be celebrated from April 19 to 25.

This year's theme, "Ignite Volunteerism," celebrates a yearlong commitment to civic participation, the rebuilding of volunteer infrastructure, and the many inspiring stories shared by volunteers across the country.

Halton Hills is home to more than 1,500 dedicated volunteers whose efforts embody the spirit of generosity. Last year alone, 533 volunteers contributed over 36,053 hours of their time. Valued at a modest $17.60 per hour, their collective contribution totals an incredible $630,927.

For those looking for more information or to get involved, I encourage you to explore volunteer opportunities at haltonhills.ca/volunteer.

2. Halton Hills Film Festival

Mayor A. Lawlor announced that the OnScreen Halton Hills Film Festival returns from April 1 to 17, offering free screenings of Canadian films at locations across the community.

Presented in partnership with the Halton Hills Public Library, Create Halton Hills, the National Film Board of Canada, and National Canadian Film Day, the festival features a range of Canadian documentaries and feature films, including family-friendly screenings.

The full schedule is available on both the Town and Library websites.

3. FanFest

Mayor A. Lawlor announced that FanFest returns on April 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Library.

This all-ages, drop-in event brings together a variety of fandom-focused activities, including comics, sci-fi, anime, gaming, cosplay, and creative workshops. There's something for everyone to enjoy.

More details are available on the Library's website.

4. Halton Hills Volunteer Fair

Mayor A. Lawlor announced that there is a celebration of volunteering and community connection on Saturday, April 18, from 12:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the Gellert Community Centre. Co-hosted by the Town of Halton Hills and Volunteer Halton, this is a wonderful opportunity for organizations to showcase their volunteer opportunities to a diverse audience such as youth, students, older adults, newcomers, and anyone interested in short-term or event-based volunteering.

Registration is open until April 8, 2026, with only 30 tables available on a first-come, first-served basis. Don't miss this chance to connect, inspire, and grow our volunteer community here in Halton Hills!

To register for the Volunteer Fair, visit cdhalton.ca or contact Elizabeth Gordon at egordon@haltonhills.ca

5. Sponsorship Partnership – Swim to Survive Program

Mayor A. Lawlor announced that The Town of Halton Hills is pleased to announce a new sponsorship partnership with the Optimist Club of Halton Hills in support of the Lifesaving Society's Swim to Survive program.

Through a three-year agreement, the Optimist Club of Halton Hills will contribute a total of $15,000 to support the delivery of this important water safety initiative for local Grade 3 students.

The Town gratefully acknowledges the Optimist Club of Halton Hills and thanks them for their continued commitment to supporting youth and strengthening our community.

6. Earth Day

Councillor M. Albano announced that this Earth Day April 22nd, there will be a community clean up organized by the Downtown Acton BIA.

Everyone can meet at the BIA at 9:30 a.m. for supplies to be provided and handed out.

7. Downtown Georgetown BIA Main Street Menu

Councillor R. Norris announced that the Downtown Georgetown BIA is launching a new program called the Main Street Menu from April 6th to the end of May. Diners can pick up a map to begin collection stamps at the participating restaurants or businesses.
